Connects to your car's 12v socket to provide 5v of charging power to your devices (such as cell-phones, tablets, etc). The 2.1Amp USB socket is suitable for powering and charging tablet devices such as iPads that require a higher amperage current. This charge supports the QUICK CHARGE and POWER DISPLAY (PD) standards, providing different voltages (up to 12v) to the smart device for devices that support QUICK CHARGE technology. This charge port is suitable for all 12v to 24v cigarette outlets found on autos, boats, and general aviation planes.
